REPORT

A disappointing defeat for Hemel IV's as they were beaten by Letchworth IV's on the Heath Park Nursery Ground. More disappintment for Steve Smith who opened for Hemel IV's, carried his bat but ended up on 97*, just missing out on his first century for a few years. A slight reappointment for Hemel skipper Tony Linfoot as he managed to score 30, breaking his run of ducks or low scores. Hemel then had Letchworth all the way down with Ross Chapman making a belated and according to him solitary reappearance taking 5 - 69. But not enough as two youngsters for Letchworth, Dave Sprittles (11*) and Gurjeet Singh (22*), steadied their tail end batting and won them the game in 37 overs.
