REPORT

First game for Hemel in the Readers Herts 20/20 cup against North Mymms in their group which they, unfortunately, lost. Mymms won the toss and batted first and raced off to 50 -1 in the first 5 overs whilst fielding restrictions apply in the first 6 overs. Hemel did well then to haul Mymms back to a reasonable score of 138 - 5 when it had looked like being much more. Spinners Parth Metha (1-18) and Richard Morton (2-20) managed to keep things under control in their 4 overs each. Hemel did not get off to the same start and in their first 5 overs were 17 - 2 with Josh Graves (0) and Jack Doodson (6) back in the hutch. Jim Southgate opened the Mymms bowling with spin and returned figures of 4 - 1 - 8 - 2 which saw off the Hemel chase. He bowled the only maiden of the match, which was the first and a wicket maiden, and had the Hemel players in knots. Other tight bowling through the Mymms attack meant that despite 34 from Chris Blunt and 25 from Brad Finch Hemel ended up 30 runs short of victory. Next game away at Letworth GC on 24th May.
