REPORT

A tightly fought out drawn game which Hemel II's chased all the way through until they had to play out the last couple of balls with 9 wickets down to secure the draw. Cockfosters batted first, rattled off to 71 for the first wicket in 24 overs but then Hemel II's hauled them back in to keep their score in chasing distance. Rory Fraser (2 - 25), Charlie Hoskins (2 - 25) and Billy May (2 - 33) each pick up a couple of wickets and then Liam Jahn came on to snatch 3 - 46. Cockfosters kept the Hemel opening under control but good middle order batting from Tom Waterton (36), Graham Clark (35) and Liam Jahn (37) meant Hemel were in the hunt all along the way. Late wickets in the last couple of overs meant the draw had to be achieved rather than the win or, heavens forbid, the defeat.
