REPORT

A couple of weeks ago with the victory over Sawbo. The 'Great Escape' was on. Now after home defeat to Stortford it looks pretty remote. Winning home games was key to the escape, now with 6 games to play, 3 at home but 76 points adrift at the bottom of the Premier Div. It looks very unlikely. Choosing to bat first after heavy Friday rain after 19 overs Hemel were 47 - 3 with the top three batsmen out. A long innings from Sam Jenkinson (42) kept Hemel afloat but wickets kept on falling and they ended up being bowled out for 111 in the 53rd over. Stortford took half the number of overs to better that score, reaching 112-2 in the 26th over. Matt Rodgers (54*) led the way for them from the top. Wicket each for Vibor Yadav (1-20) and Parth Mehta (1-13) the best Hemel could manage.
