REPORT

Hemel II's, having started off winning their first 5 CVL Div. 6 games have now lost their last 3. Nicely settling out of the promotion positions but staying clear of the bottom places. Scoresheet I picked up was a little ramshackle, effectively what I managed to find out is that Boxmoor batted first and scored circa 150, we chased and came up 10 short on 140. No bowling figures for Hemel on the sheet so all one can deduce is that Scott Radcliffe picked up 3 wickets and Matt Bateman - ex of Hemel whilst in the colts, now back at his fathers club - top scored for Boxmoor with 29 and took 2-22 from his 10 overs. For Hemel's batting Aaron Wilson opened and scored 40, later in the order Adam Khan (19) and Liam Jahn (22) took Hemel almost to victory, but fell 10 short leaving Adam Moulster (12*) for the second day without any batting partners.
