REPORT

Hastily arranged pre-league season friendly for Hemel II XI against Letchworth GC II to get both sides activated after early season rained off friendlies. 40 over game which Letchworth managed to win quite comfortably, Batting first they made it to 208 all out after Chris Pearson (2-43) had removed their openers early on. Stretching his bowling arm for a change Ram Hussain was able to come on at the end of their innings and return 3 - 33. Hemel never really got after the total, 59 and retiring from Andy Turbutt and 35 from skipper of the day Anjam Khan were their best scores as they ended up 44 runs short of the LGC total.
