REPORT

An highly fraught game as not only did Hemel field their first father & son combination in their Herts League 1st XI history - Nick Hodgins & son Lewis Hodgins - but Hemel beat the Championship unbeaten leaders in a tense finish with 8 balls to go. Put in by Letchworth Hemel made steady, but not great, progress with batsmen getting in but going no further. Tom Waterton top scoring on 42, followed by Josh Graves on 33. It then took Nick Hodgins (41*) and Ed Langley (30*) to put on an undefeated 61 for the 7th wicket to get Hemel up to a defendable total. It never seemed that Letchworth were chasing with intent and the father & son partnership of the Hodgins kept them firmly under control and kept the wickets coming for Hemel. Both bowled 18 overs and Lewis ended up with 3 - 34 and dad Nick 3 - 45. Bowling the pair of spinners meant that Hemel had accumulated overs and opener Jack Doodson and Brett Penny were able to come back on at the end to aim for the last wicket. Jack Doodson was able to do what was required as Ed Langley took a catch to dismiss the LGC no.11 Dominic Simmons to win the game for Hemel. LGC still remained top though.
