REPORT

Much needed win for Hemel 2nd XI to get their ball rolling up from the foot of Div 2 B. Although with other results 30 points and they still remain at the foot. Short of bowling called for great enterprise from skipper Graham Clark, and he managed it. Suren Perera turned in 3 - 21 from 9 overs at the end, Rahul Wickramasinghe took 3 - 55, 2 at the top and then the last wicket. Chris Dawson with 60 opening the batting for Allenbury's was their best return. What was needed from the Hemel batting was a major innings fro at least one batsman an Taq Hussain delivered, scoring 110 to see Hemel on their way to victory. Only blemish, perhaps, was getting out when the scores were level. But he had done his job. This was Taq's first ton for a senior Hemel side in the Herts League so a cause for double celebration that evening, a win and first ton.
