REPORT

For a fairly gash Hemel side containing just 4 1st team regulars from this season to push Premier Division North Mymms, at nearly full strength, to quite a close finish, is highly commendable. The now self-proclaimed 'part timer' in the form of Martin Botha could feel highly pleased to open the bowling and take 2 - 18 from his 4 overs the 2 wickets being county player James Southgate and much recognised representative player Hamza Qayyum. Darmaraj Singh Jhala was able to take advantage of a disastrous 19th over, from an Hemel point of view, that conceded 36 runs and took 16 balls to help himself to 50 and see Mymms to 189 - 6 from their 20 overs. Hemel came out from the top, particularly in the form of Hem Ilangaratne, and had 100 from the first 10 overs. Hem scored 75 from 52 balls and was helped along the way with 22 from Josh Graves and 21 from Kashif Dalvi. But the momentum from such an inexperienced side could not be maintained and Hemel ended at 176 - 7, 13 runs behind. Mymms now go into the County Cup semi finals with Hertford, Bishops Stortford & Radlett.
