

Scorebook for the St Albans innings had not been written up after the game so can only go with the Herts League results sheet and the Hemel side of the scorebook. St Albans II won the toss and batted first, amassing 329 all out in just 41 of their 50 overs. Chasing what was 6 1/2 an over in reply a much weakened Hemel III side was unlikely to be able to make much of a dent in that total. Losing early wickets made it even more unlikely and only 33 at the rear of the innings from Rahul Kedia, 28 from Ballinder Walia and 23 fro Jamsheed Akbar got Hemel up to 179, justb over halfway there.
