REPORT

The dreaded rain came again to Hemel's chagrin but this time it probably confirmed the inevitable. Batting first Hemel III were bowled out for just 117 in 40 overs with the 3 older players in the development side being the only ones to make double figure scores. Graham Clark topped with 40, Neil Morgan scored 28 and Andy Turbutt 12. 80 of the sides total and extras snegled in with 22. Will Hodgins and Ben Dumbleton managed a wicket each as Hitchin II's had reached 88 - 2 before the heavens opened up at Lucas Lane and the game was called off.
