REPORT

A thrilling 1st round match in the Readers Herts County Trophy which saw Hemel come out on top by 17 runs. Winning the toss and batting first Hemel were looking to build a large defendable score with the knowledge they were one or two attacking bowlers light. This they did with Tom Elborn (87) batting through almost to the end of their 50 overs. Tom Waterton (53) and Sunday skipper Jack doodson (24) kept things moving along. A few 6's from Aaron Wilson and Will Langley at the end brought Hemel up to 282 - 7. Manipulating the bowling resources was Jack Doods task, one or two danger batsmen in the Northchurch line-up. Bowling Lewis Hodgins straight through his 10 overs was a gamble, but effective, particularly as his spectacular caught and bowled removed Northchurch's Australian batsman Steve McGiffin for just 20. Tom Garroway only plays one way and he smashed his way to 114 from 85 balls. His partnership of 86 with Mark Hobley (65) was swinging things to Northchurch. At 160 - 4 from 32 overs things were there for Northchurch. The last big gamble, bowling the slow of Richard Morton, was played. 18 off his first over with 2 huge 6's into Station Road from Garroway seemed to see the gamble lost. Next Morton over saw Garroway caught by Nick Hodgins and Jim Smart stumped by Tom Elborn next ball. 183 - 6 advantage Hemel. Anjam Khan then bowled Mark Hobley and the balance had changed. Keeping the run scoring to singles meant Hemel were able to see it through. St Albans West Indians away next round on Sunday 18th June.
