REPORT

What could be termed as a 'local' derby between 2 sides in close geographic proximity ended up as a draw with both sides taking almost similar points from the encounter. Levy won the toss and batted, as one does, scoring 238 - 7 from their 53 overs. Given the recent hot & dry weather Hemel knew their wicket and the slow bowling of Parth Mehta (1-56), Lewia Hodgins (1-68) and Nick Hodgins (5-60) bowled 42 of the overs. Kris Jadeja top scored for Levy with 49 before he became the 3rd if Nock Hodgins 5 victims. Hemel knew their target, after losing Tom Elborn (23) after 13 overs a lot of hope was based on Lewis Hodgins. He was striking the ball hard and cleanly until in the 20th over with the score on 75 he went for one big hit too many and was caught in the deep by Lewis Koch for 43. Batting incentive went on to Neil Morgan (80). He tried hard but Hemel were always behind the clock in their search for runs. The scores ended after 47 overs with Hemel on 219 - 8, 20 runs short of victory. 17 points to Hemel and 18 points to Levy.
