REPORT

Spare Sunday date in fixture card so Jack Doodson was able to arrange a game against a side called Simmons, primarily teachers connected with Lockers Park School. Winning the toss Hemel openers Lewis Hodgins (100) and Josh Graves (74) tore into the bowling putting on 193 for the first wicket in 22 overs. In the process Lewis, Hodgie 2, became the first Hemel 1st XI player to score a century for the club on both Saturday, (101 vs Stevenage) and Sunday since the days of that renowned batting star Andy Dow from a year way back I can't remember. Things calmed down a little with Charlie Hoskins scoring 55* from no. 6 and Darryl Barnett 47 from no.7. Hemel ended on 344 - 6 in 40 overs. As Jack Doodson had arranged the match he ended up playing for the teachers side, well is is one anyway, and blasted a monumental 118 from the opening position. Simmons chased all the way down and ended on 258 - 9 from their 40 overs. Darryl Barnett returned the best bowling figures with 3 - 19 and Ed Langley with Ryan Wilson picked up a couple of wickets each.
