REPORT

After a couple of draws it was back into the winning ways for Hemel I with victory over Old Albanian at their ground. At the halfway stage of the league season it means Hemel are in 3rd place in Div. 1, 17 points off the top. Put in by Old A's Lewis Hodgins felt the strange force of cricket. Centuries on Saturday and Sunday last weekend, bowled first ball this weekend. The great leveller. Tom Elborn (54) came to the rescue and together with Jack Doodson (37) and Josh Graves (30) saw Hemel to a score of 178. Not the greatest but with three run outs in that score and a stumping it showed Hemel were going for it. Time for the entry of a new acquisition in the form of Sindhu Kanade, opening bowler from Welwyn Garden City and briefly Radlett. His first 6 overs returned figures of 3 - 9 as he took out the first 3 Old A. batters. Normal service resumed as Nick Hodgins (2-20), Parth Mehta (2-34) and Duncan Howard (1-25) saw out the remainder for Sindhu to return and take out the last couple to finish with figures of 10 - 2 - 27 - 5. Not a bad debut.
