REPORT

Flamstead, up at the top of Div. 5B, were looking for a quick win against Hemel III before the weather closed in. They had not accounted for the resilience that skipper for the day Graham Clark would put into the side. Winning the toss. and batting first Hemel III made their way to 194 all out from 50 overs. Scott Radcliffe laed the way with 69, Graham Clark made 34 and young Ed Grayson added 24. Martin Botha then removed a couple of wickets in his first 3 overs. Flamstead made it on to 80 - 2 before the rains came.
