REPORT

Perhaps Shenley knew that Hemel were already relegated. They certainly didn't waste any time playing around with the chance of 30 points in their locker. Putting Hemel in to bat they took just 22 overs to bowl them out for just 35 runs, a lot of 'justs' in there, with Graham Clark opening and scoring the only double figure score of 14. Shenley then took just 8 1/2 overs to tap off the runs to get the win. Good Saturday out for everyone.
