REPORT

For some reason Hemel seem to have made the game against Northwood more difficult than it need be. Earlier in the season they bowled Northwood out for 137 and then struggled to win the game by 4 wickets. This time they were cruising along to victory and then lost 3 wickets in an Sajid Aziz over to suddenly put the worries in. Northwood batted first and tight bowling from the Hemel outfit kept them to just 182 - 8 in their 50 overs. Jack Doodson led in the wickets with 3 - 31 but Steve Reader with 2 - 26, Brett Penny with 1 - 32 and Parth Mehta 1 - 34 used their 10 over allotment well. Couple of early wickets went down for Hemel but Tom Elborn (94) and Manvir Chauhan (33) were seeing Hemel along easily to victory. Chauhan then tried to slog Aziz and was caught, Parth Mehta came in to shepherd Tom Elborn to his well earned and deserved century. Things all changed in the 39th over. 1st ball Tom Elborn saw the red mist and tried to reach his century in one hit, missed and was bowled for 94. 3 balls later Matt Dale tied himself up attempting a shot and was bowled, 2 balls later Jack Doodson was given out LBW and Sajid Aziz had 3 wickets in his penultimate over. Time and more particularly overs in Hemel favour as Parth Mehta (10*) and Ali Leighton (6*) were able to see Hemel to a 4 wicket victory with 7 overs to spare.
