REPORT

Bizarre set of events for Hemel I this season in the Herts League Championship. When they played Letchworth earlier in the season, Hemel were bottom of the league, Letchworth were 100% league leaders. Hemel beat them. Second time around, Hemel are bottom, Letchworth top of the league. Hemel beat them again. Obviously got the Letchworth number. Not that it makes much difference as even despite this latest defeat of the league leaders Hemel still remain at the foot of the Championship and Letchworth still remain at the top. On to the game itself. Batting first Letchworth were held down by the joint spin of Lewis Hodgins (3-22) and Rahul Wickramasinghe (3-22) who kept Letchworth down to just 155 - 9 from their 50 overs. Hem Ilangaratne (36) and Tom Elborn (69) set up the chase with a partnership of 67 for the first wicket in 17 overs. The chase was a little sketchy but Lewis Hodgins (26*) was able to see Hemel home in 41 overs quite comfortably. Still bottom of the championship with 2 games to play though.
