REPORT

Hastily arranged friendly after Bessborough conceded the planned Chess Valley League game against Saracens a roaming side. 40 game agreed, Hemel batted first and made 239 - 7 from their 40 overs. Aaron Wilson led the way with 75, Ed Langley chipped in with 30, Darryl Barnett 30* at the end after Lewis Hodgins (24) and Phil Smith (28) had opened brightly. The Hemel bowling attack had taken 4 Saracens wickets in the first 10 overs for 70 runs and that was followed quickly by a 5th. Jenkins with 92 for Saracens was their main opposition but bringing on Lewis Hodgins proved to be the ticket for Hemel as he got him in his first over, caught behind. Will Langley then took the last wicket in the 35th over for Hemel to win by 82 runs.
