REPORT

Start of the 2018 season, finally, with a friendly for Hemel against local team West Herts. A defeat on the run up but a moment of joy for one Hemel player, in the form of Adam Locke, who snaffled a 1st class cricketer, Jaahid Ali, who is West Herts overseas player this year. Not just any old overseas 1st class cricketer but one that had scored a century against an England 'A' side when they last toured, including the likes of Mark Wood for England. All the beers on Locky this night. No mention of the fact that it took an athletic catch on the boundary by Lewis Hodgins that took the wicket and prevented the ball going for 6.

A good run out for the Hemel players. Bowlers got into the groove, pity about the batting with only the returning Hem Ilangaratne (41) and skipper Nick Hodgins (20) making double figures. Still, 2 weeks to go until start of league season.
