REPORT

Always a toughie opening game of the league season, more so for Hemel as they found themselves as the promoted side away to the side, Luton, that had been relegated from the Premier Division. But no matter, Hemel saw it through with a comfortable victory. Key was the start and in his first over Brett Penny bowled the Luton overseas player Murtaza Shabbir Trunkwala for just 2 and Hemel were on their way. Tight bowling from the Hemel side kept Luton under wraps and they ended up bowling them out for 153. Things not looking too good for Hemel at 32 - 4 after 12 overs but Jack Doodson (69) and Tom Elborn (46*) steadied the ship with a 5th wicket partnership of 85. Departure of Jack Doodson but Tom Elborn kept things going with Will Langley and their 37 run 6th wicket partnership saw Hemel to victory with more than 5 overs to spare.
