REPORT

Crunch game between 1st (Dunstable) and 2nd (Hemel) in the league and Dunstable came out on top with the win. Batting first Hemel had opener Hem Ilangaratne (71) and no.3 Brett Penny (70) to drive their score along putting on 125 for the 2nd wicket. Tight Dunstable bowling, not no.1 for nothing, kept the Hemel batters under the cosh and they only managed to make 211 - 8 from their allowed 60 overs. Tight score to defend but Hemel opening bowlers tore into the Dunstable line up getting them to 19 - 3 after 8 overs. Dunstable skipper Sam Cherry (75) proved to be the sticking point as he guided Dunstable along. Prime support came from another Sam, this time Sam Marshall (39) who put on 85 with him for the 7th wicket to see Dunstable to the verge of victory. They both fell at the end to Brett Penny and Steve Reader but still time & room For Dunstable to creep over the line at the end. Hemel slip down to 3rd in the Championship, behind Leverstock Green, who had an amazing win over at Hoddesdon.
