REPORT

With both Boxmoors 2nd & 3rd XI games called off by their opposition their 'GOOD' chums across the moor Hemel Town were able to step into the breach and rustle together a side to play them. Sold as a good opportunity for Hemel players to turn out on the main Boxmoor pitch - The Oval, also just across the way for the Hemel lads. Hemels bowlers kept a good hold on the Boxmoor batters and kept them down to 142 - 9 from their 40 overs. 51 from Kelly Lowe was their best score, Scott Radcliffe took 3 - 20, Mitchell Morris 2 - 22 and Martyn Bell 2- 26 from their allowed 8 overs. Hemel then took just 28 of their overs to see off the necessary runs. Lewis Boughton was out for 47 - jug avoidance - and Max Farrelly hit 52* as Hemel cruised in by 7 wickets. Not a bad Saturday in bragging rights, Hemel 3rd XI thrash Boxmoor 1st XI by 93 runs in Div. 6B and a makeshift 5th XI win by 7 wickets against the rest of Boxmoor. Say no more.
