REPORT

Frustration for Hemel 1st XI as they failed to bowl out Flitwick to win the game they were always on top in. More particularly it was failure to bowl out Flitwick's Sri Lankan Nadeera Nawela who made 115* and held their innings together. When Hemel last played Flitwick in the Championship in 2016 he made 63* and 71 * so Hemel have had a problem getting his wicket for a couple of years. Into what is known as 'proper' cricket, although there is still over restrictions, Hemel won the toss and batted, making 281 - 8 in their permitted 60 overs. Hem Ilangaratne (52) and Lewis Hodgins (55) put on 112 for the first wicket. Brett Penny followed up with 43 at no.3 and Johan Moritz added 67 from no.4. A total to play with and Hemel tore into the Flitwick batting, reducing them to 75 - 4 with a wicket for Brett Penny and 3 for Steve Reader, including the Flitwick captain and Beds. Minor county player George Thurstance for a duck. For some reason Flitwick then appeared to shut up shop and play out time. Hemel tried everything and ended up bowling 68 overs in reply, way above the dictated - at least 55. Steve Reader ended with 3 - 31 from 11 overs, the other Hemel bowlers took one a piece but Flitwick held firm and the game was a draw.
