REPORT

No better way to reach the half-way stage of the league season than by beating your local rivals at their ground in a convincing manner. That is what Hemel did to Leverstock Green and in the process switched places with them in the league swapping 4th & 5th places. Batting first Hemel seemed in control with the measured batting of Hemish Ilangaratne (64) tickling them along. Then a sudden collapse ensued as Hemel went from 142 - 3 in the 45th over to 163 all out in the 59th. Adam Thomas (5-38) and Levy's Australian Sol Tomlinson (4-42) did the damage with only Craig Weston (19) making double figures after Tom Elborn (30) and Jack Doodson (28). Bit of work for the bowlers to do and they didn't disappoint. 4th & 6th overs Steve Reader took out the Levy 1 & 3 batsmen, then the spinners got to work. Parth Mehta (4-26) did the main damage, Johan Moritz (1-14) took Mart Hacksaw the other opener and Hemel skipper Nick Hodgins came on at the end to take 2 - 11 and see the tail off. Levy did make it to 104 but still ended up losing by 59 runs.
