REPORT

In the initial one of these two games Hoddesdon's South African Jayden Broodryk had smashed 112 from 57 balls. This time around he was only able to get 74 from 75 balls. Hemel's South African, Johan Maritz was able to assume the mantle this time opening and scoring 116 from 105 balls. Having won the toss and put Hemel into bat one would have thought that Hoddesdon had a plan, cunning or not. As it was Hemel, through 116 from Maritz and 67 from Jack Doodson wvre able to proceed to 309 - 7 in their 60 overs, thus procuring maximum batting points. The early part of Hoddy's run chase startec off in rapid styleand with Broodryk (74) and skipper Sam Davis (90*) together for the 4th wicket things were looking on for them. 238 - 3 after 42 overs with 72 to score from 13 overs on a run-scoring outfield it was there. Then a lazy off drive from Broodryk spooned a ball from Shidhu Kanade up to Josh Graves at long off who, having made a mess of it originally, held onto the ball above the ground between his legs. With Hoddy needing 6 an over Hemel kept on plugging away and Hoddy batsmen kept on getting out. Last over with 15 needed and Davis on strike, Shidhu Kanade kept him to 1 X 4 and a single as the match ended up drawn.
