REPORT

The rain around the area finally called an end to this game at 7.15pm and Hemel II won on run rate. None of this DLS Duckworth- Lewis-Stern stuff down at this level straight runs divided by overs. With rain in the offing Wheathampstead had always been needing 6 an over, more than the 5 an over Hemel had scored out so it worked out correctly. Shuffling up through all sides with 5 out of the 1st XI and Suren Perera was the man that seized the opportunity scoring 104 from the top of the order. Aaron Wilson also chipped in with a 60 from no. 4 as Hemel set the mark with 249 - 8 from their 50 overs. Needing a scoring rate of 5 an over it took Wheathampstead until the 26th over to reach a 100 runs. Gathering rain clouds meant that Hemel could keep their run scoring down so when it came they were behind the mark. 2 - 36 from Daryll Barnett a measure of the control Hemel kept on it.
