REPORT

2 games completed and both lost by Hemel sides at the weekend, 2 games rain effected and both won by Hemel, could it tell you something ? Hemel IV were the second side to lose over the weekend as Old Minchendenians completed the double' over Hemel IV and kept themselves in 2nd place in Div.9B. 3rd placed Sandridge II Hemel IV's (4th place) next opponent away. Tough at the top end of the division. The effect of non-availabilities in the top 2 sides showed its impact down at the 4th XI with players being drawn in from wherever possible. Put in Hemel only managed to make 164 on the normally high scoring Nursery pitch. Skipper Mike Samuels made 45 at the top 20'2 fro Nic Benson (26), Vinnie Liddar (23) and Dil Khan (23) down at the end added some respectability to the scoreline. Old Minches took only 36 overs to score the needed runs for the loss of only 3 wickets and avoiding the rain that swept through. 1 wicket each for Nic Benson (1-30) and Ajay Savania (1-16), but that was that.
