REPORT

After a couple of wins a couple of defeats, story of the Hemel season really. Unfortunate thing being that Hemel went down to their 4th home defeat out of 8 home games, hardly the table topping promotion style that would get them back up to the Premier Division.. Winning the toss and asking Flitwick to bat Hemel were on top for most of the 50 overs apart from a quick-fire 90 in 84 balls from Flitwick skipper George Thurstance. Lewis Hodgins returned 4 - 23 from his 10 overs as the leading Hemel bowler, Parth Mehta 1 - 39 from his 10. The run chase was on and Lewis Hodgins opened with 43 from 44 balls. Joham Maritz scored 59 from 40 balls and Hemel were on their way. But then it all fell away as time at the wicket and run-scoring did not gell. Skipper for the day Jack Doodson dug in for 43 from 100 balls but nobody could stay with him. The tail tried to wag but not hard enough as the last 4 wickets crashed out in 2 overs and Flitwick won by 9 runs. Net result in the league was that Hemel remain in 4th place in the Champiuship and Flitwick climb out of the relegation spots pushing Langleybury down into them.
