REPORT

With a not too unexpected familiarity Hemel III' failed to write up their oppositions scorebook so we only have one side of the match. Again, pity the poor bowlers whose figures are missing, then again they might be glad of it. Anyway, Hemel III won the toss and batted first, only to be skittled out for just 116 in 33 overs. Batting at no.8 Ross Chapman top scored with 37, onlt 2 other Hemel batsmen made double figures, Tim Wright (25) and Andy Turbutt (17). From the league figures Old Elizabethans II's then made 120 - 3 in 31.3 overs to win the game. Hemel III now drop to 2nd in Div.6B, game off next week until last weekend game against division leaders, by 1 point, Abbots Langley II. 3rd placed Letchworth Garden City III play Abbots at their ground next weekend so result of that game could be interesting.
