REPORT

That famous friend of cricket Duckworth Lewis Stern came into play on Saturday for Hemel 1st XI as the heavens opened in their game against Amphill at 6.30pm and the game was abandoned. Such is the level that the 1st XI are now playing DLS is now a decider on such outcomes and Amphill got the verdict with a win and 25 points. Admittedly, when Hemel were 69 - 6 after 20 overs they might have been relieved with that outcome. Jack Doodson (100*) was the saviour of the Hemel innings as he hauled them back up to a score of 200 - 9 in their 50 overs. In reply Hemel had Amphill at 47 - 3 after 10 overs with Steve Reader (2-37) nipping into their early order. The Amphill skipper Jim Kerr ((54*) dug himself in and managed to guide them to the ultimate DLS victory. With one league game to go for the season keeps Amphill in the shout with Hoddesdon for a play-off game against Harpenden or Bishops Stortford for a place in the Premier Division. Hemel (5th) will have a 'local' derby against Leverstock Green (6th) for a mid-table place in the Championship.
