REPORT

With great prediction of the weather Hemel had 2 games fixture carded for the last Sunday of the 2018 season. One away to decide the CVL Div. 3 and a friendly at home against Edgware. Quite justified with a cracker of a game down at the Heath Park. Winning the toss and batting in a 35 over game Edgware scored 192 - 8 with their opener Nakul batting through for a well deserved 101*, including 10 X 4 and 2 X 6. Nic Benson led the Hemel bowlers with 3 - 40 from his 7 overs, Ruin Miah followed him with 2 - 33 from 6. Batting on home soil always something that skipper of the day, Mike Samuels, likes doing and he opened and showed why with 65*. The revelation came with Ruin Miah who batted at 5 and smote 46* including winning the game with 5 runs needed with a 6 over mid wicket. Good time had by all at end of season.
