REPORT

Again with the rain effecting the timing of the game this final of the preliminary round ended up being 18 overs a side. Winning the toss again Hemel batted first and Hemish Ilangaratne (39) and Lewis Hodgins (64) set Hemel on their way, putting on 99 for the 1st wicket in 12 overs and 46 mins. Lewis Hodgins ended up with 64 with 3 X 4 and 5 X 6s. Hemels final score was 127 - 4 in their 18 overs. At the same point that Hemel were 99 - 0 after 12 overs Hertford were 83 - 4. But with the game tight one loose over from Hemel probably turned the game and Hertford just got over the winning line to win the game with 128 - 7 with 3 balls to spare. Shidhu Kanade returned 3 - 19 from his 4 overs but Hertford just got there to reach the finals on 14th July at somewhere to be decided and to host one of the preliminary rounds next year.
