REPORT

An early Chess Valley League game for the newly promoted Hemel side away at Ealing Hanwellians who came 4th last year in the CVL Div. 2 and thus missed out on promotion. A win for Hemel, but in some circumstances only just. Batting first in their 45 over game Hemel only faced 38 overs as yer man S Singh snapped up 5 - 8 in 6 overs to run through the Hemel tail. Earlier Aussie new boy Jack Bailey helped himself to another half century for his first 2 games as he scored 54. People will soon be talking about him as a batter rather than a bowler if he keeps this going. Hemel out for 153 and must have thought they had the game wrapped up as Ealing H were down to 54 - 9. Then their last pair Raheel (51) and Singh (36*) slogged their way to a partnership of 76 for the last wicket and nerves may have been fraying. Skipper Lewis Hodgins having none of it, 5 balls and had Raheel caught by his brother Will to get Ealing H out for 130 and a Hemel win by 23 runs with 4 points.
