REPORT

Aldenham had leapt up into Div. 9A after winning Div. 10A last year. As it was Hemel IV, up from Div. 9B last year, proved just too strong for them as they won their 2nd game of the league season and sit up at the top of the division. Put in Hemel only made it to 149 from 43 overs as they struggled to get decent partnerships together. Phil Smith was the lead with 36* and his partnership of 42 for the 9th wicket with Vinnie Liddar (15) was to prove crucial to Hemel's fortunes. At the top of the innings Mike Samueals (19) and Jim Langley (15) had put on 40 for the first wicket but there had been little else in between. The bowling proved to be the key. Sam Wheeler led the way with 3-10 from his 9 overs. Darryl Barnett (2-10), Nic Benson (1-9) and then Vinnie Liddar wrapping things up with 2 - 19 for Hemel IV to win by 47 runs.
