REPORT

What one might call a 'proper' Sunday afternoon friendly decided by 4 runs in the last over of the match. Batting first Hemel Sunday XI overcame the early loss of their skipper for just 2 runs to build around Aussie Jack Bailey (56), 2nd XI skipper Tom Waterton (37) and Lewis Boughton (24). One of the quirks of Sunday friendlies was that Hemel 1st XI vice skipper Jack Doodson was playing for Old Fullerians due to teaching at Watford Grammar School. Bowling compatriot Lewis Hodgins for 2 must have been satisfying. Hemel made it through to 183 all out from 37 overs. OF's went for the score. More 1st XI battles with Simon Walker of West Herts Premier side scoring 43 but falling to a caught Jack Bailey, bowled Lewis Hodgins routine to keep it all in the family. Jack Doodson scored 58 for Ofs but it was the seam of Jack Boughton that won the game for Hemel in the last over as he snapped up 4 - 26 to rattle out the tail with 5 balls remaining and Hemel to win by 4 runs. Enjoyable Sunday all round.
