REPORT

Hemel II's got back into the winning ways, along with Hemel 1sts, with a large win over Southgate Adelaide I who, again, had beaten them in both games last year. Here at the Walker Cricket Ground it was a celebration for the first league century for Aaron Wilson who hit 104. 76 from skipper Tom Waterton and 52 from opener Ed Langley and Hemel's tiop order were well in charge of the game. 278 - 5 from their 50 overs not to be sneezed at. Past the halfway mark after 27 overs, Hemel had Southgate A at 96 - 5 with no way back. Enter Fawad Ahmed for them who put on 74 for the 6th wicket as he saw himself to 75. Still not enough as Suren Perera snapped up 4 - 21 in 5 overs to bowl Southgate A out for 219 in 43 overs.
