REPORT

Hastily arranged friendly after Chess Valley League opponents dropped out. Managed to get Saracens who we played and beat last year and are due to play on 21st July on a Sunday friendly down at the Heath Park. Agreed 40 over game and skipper Lewis Hodgins spent time reaccustomizing himself to the crease with a knock of 116. Helped along the way with 71 from Billy May as they put on 148 for the 2nd wicket. 293 - 6 from their 40 overs set a good target. Saracens showed that they were up for it and their opener Ben Wallis went slightly better than Lewis scoring 119 with 19 X 4s. But their support scoring batsman Andrew Young could only score 58 against Billy Mays 71 and Saracens were unable to keep the required scoring rate going against Hemels restrictive bowling. Saracens ended on 228 - 7 from their 40 overs to lose by 65 runs.
