REPORT

Another home win for Hemel at the end of the first batch of 50 over games in the Championship. Old Owens promoted from Div. 1 having won in last year sit just off the bottom of the Championship having lost all the first 5 matches there. Hemel couple places above them having won 2 out of their 5 games. Put in the main man for Hemel was Gareth James who hit a century off 83 balls and ended up with 106 from 92 balls in 110 mins. First Herts. League century for Gareth earlier tons in 2011 and 2012 were in Chess Valley League games and friendlies. Earlier rain had caused the game to be reduced to 45 overs each and Hemel ended up with 266 - 7. Jack Bailey next best run scorer with 36 but that old favourite extras managed to contribute 44 runs including 23 wides from Old O's.

On the bowling front Jack Bailey removed Old O's first 2 batsmen with the score on 22 but from then on it was the Hodgins story as dad Nick removed Old O's top scorer for 47 and son Lewis ran through the rest of their batting to return 5 - 36 as Old Owens were bowled out for 152 in 32 overs.
