REPORT

A regular Sunday fixture for the Hemel Sunday XI for the last few years. Second time we had played them this year as they slotted into a vacancy on 2nd June after a drop out on the regular fixture. A good opportunity for players of both sides to exercise their skills in a friendly environment. Hemel batted first and the Australian overseas player Jack Bailey showed that the lurking skills he had briefly shown during the league games were there as he opened and scored his first century for the club (102). Further down the batting order skipper Lewis Hodgins hit a rapid 33 and 4th XI vice captain Nic Benson was able to score his highest score of the year with 33* at no. 10. Then Ben Wallace, who plays on Saturdays for Letchworth Garden City - in Hemel 1sts championship - was able to take another look at the Heath Park wicket scoring 127*. Earlier in June he had scored 119 for Saracens. Obviously likes the pitch, or the Sunday bowling. In an agreed 40 over game Saracens was always going to push it to reach the required 6 1/2 runs an over as 3 sharp run outs by on the ball Hemel fielders proved. Of the Hemel bowlers Ross Chapman took 2 - 40 so Run Outs won that race. Hemel won 44 runs in a game and on a day enjoyed by all.
