REPORT

With all the league games being rained off on Saturday 11 Hemel players were satisfied on Sunday when the Heath Park was passed fit for a friendly 40 over game against Paddington from North London. After the result they may not have been too satisfied. Batting first Paddington rattled off at over 6 an over with Khalid Saeed retiring on 122 to give the others a chance. Thing about Sunday friendlies is that different things can be tried and normal 1st XI wicketkeeper and batsman Tom Elborn - he of Heath Park Cup Final MOM for his 77 - was able to try turning his arm over and with great alacrity. 8 overs 5 - 40 as he ran through the Paddington tail. Still their total of 255 was a sizeable total to chase. Hemel showed their intention from the first over with skipper Lewis Hodgins hitting his 3rd ball for 6 and then being caught off his 5th ball trying the same. Was really the story of the innings as reliable catching from Paddington kept taking wickets as Hemel spooned up catches. Through it all Freddie Lippiatt kept pushing along and he reached his 50 with a firmly driven 4 straight back to the canal end of the pitch. He ended on 52* as Hemel subsided to a 94 run defeat.
