REPORT

A strange game which one one hand showed the merits of designated 'timed' games against the result orientated vogue of 50 over cricket. To be expected draws under 'timed' games will always bring out that thought. To the nitty-gritty, Leverstock Green got away with a draw after 7 straight defeats in their championship games. Hemel won the toss and batted, rattled up to 100 - 3 in the first 21 overs with Lewis Hodgins (41) and Brett Penny (40) running them along. Lost their way a bit mid innings with only Gareth James (39) and Jack Bailey (24) keeping things moving but at a slower pace. Skipper Nick Hodgins came in at no. 9 with the score on 162 - 7 from 37 overs. He then proceeded to hit 52 from 72 balls (5X4, 2X6) together with Tom Elborn (17) and Parth Mehta (21*) to get Hemel up to 264 - 9 from their 60 overs. Levy were then off like a train scoring 100 - 0 from their first 21 overs. Levy skipper Lewis Koch led the way scoring 60 off 66 balls. Unfortunately, for Levy, they did not have much else to push for victory. Overseas player Mahela Wijayalath from Sri Lanka ended up scoring 74 but from 154 balls taking up a lot of the time that they needed to be pushing for victory. Tight bowling from Lewis Hodgins who managed 5 maidens from his 11-5-19-1 and Parth Mehta who returned 18-3-49-4 stopped Levy but they were unable to take the last levy wickets who had shut up shop. Hemel tried 8 bowlers and Hodgins got Wiyayalath out LBW but not enough time left to see victory. Winning draw had to do.
