REPORT

A bit of a strange and disappointing defeat for Hemel II's at home against a side who are nestling down near the foot of Div. 3B. On the positive side at the halfway point through the league season Hemel II are still in 2nd place in the division with a battle for the 2nd place spot to come through the end of the season. Hemel had no answer to Mohammed Essa who hit 86 for Lutonians with 9 X 6s and 5 X 4s. In Fact most of the Lutonian side seemed to enjoy hitting 6s as they put in 14 in total in their score of 209. Hemel had little in return, Ed Langley set off with 34, Ryan Wilson made 25 in the middle and Tom Waterton scored 21. But they never really came close to the Lutonian score and were all out for 127.
