REPORT

What had the potential of being the 'BIG' game with Hemel's current positive run and Hoddy being another top end of the table side proved to be anything but as Hemel were well and truly stuffed, in polite balance. Got one digging around to find the last time we actually beat Hoddy. Draw last year but an actual victory. Proved to be 2013 when we won over at their place and 2012 when we last won at home. Common to both were Hem and Brett Penny who played in both those games and Matt Dale who played in the away win in 2013. Back to reality and a below strength Hemel side batted first, lost Lewis Hodgins in the 3rd over and seemed to struggle from then on. Jack Bailey came in at 4 and top scored with 38, Brett Penny scored 29 and Hem, at the top, 21. Will Langley came in at 7 and batted for an hour for 22 holding the tail together as they made it to 165 all out.

An early(ish) wicket for Shihdu Kanade in the 8th over then saw Hemel's nemesis Jayden Broodryk to the wicket. Hoddy's South African overseas player has scored over 50, usually in rapid time, against Hemel in each innings for the last 2 years. This time 60* from 76 balls, quite leisurely by his standards. Hoddy strolled to 169 - 1 in 33 overs for victory and Hemel were left nowhere.
