REPORT

Resilience of Hemel shown in this game, missing both Hodgins and Brett Penny, replacements were able to fill the gaps and Hemel secured another win in the last of the 'proper' cricket games. With the season split 1/2 and 1/2 between 'proper' timed games and 50 over games Hemel have managed to come out of the timed games with Won 5, Win'Draw 2, Lost 1 and Cancelled 1. In this game away at Old Owens 2 men came to the front. Mukesh Bhatt in his second game picked up 6 - 40 as Old Owens were bowled out for 172 and Hem Ilangaratne hit 77 from the top of Hemel's innings to see them on the way to victory. Mukesh Bhatt we have picked up from Stanmore in the Middlesex County league as he has moved over to Hemel and has his lad playing in the U-9 young cricketers. Hem just did what he needs to do in these circumstances hitting his 3rd 50 of the league season to end on 375 runs after 10 played games. Eranda Jayasinghe made his 1st XI league debut and managed to pick up a wicket for his efforts. 4 50 over games to go until the end of the season, Hemel, in 4th place, 19 points behind 2nd placed Shenley Village so all to play for.
