REPORT

Last CVL game of the season and a week to wait for the end result. A win for Hemel moved them back up into second place in Div. 2 and thus promotion. One game to be played, next Sunday 1st Sept, between Hertford at home to Watford Town. Win for Hertford will mean they avoid relegation, win for Watford will mean they get promoted instead of Hemel on run rate calculation.

Gloriously hot late summer Sunday for Hemel to get their last CVL win of the season. Leaders to the fore with vice captain Aaron Wilson scoring 76* and captain Lewis Hodgins 52. Charlie Hoskins bashed a late 27 and Billy May added 22. 255 - 8 not a bad total to defend in a 45 over game. Uxbridge played as a side well above their bottom placed -5 points suggests. They kept on going, lost only 5 wickets, but were never up with the clock to reach the target, losing by 40 runs. Couple of wickets for Ryan Merell and one each for Nic Benson And Charlie Hoskins. All wait until next Sunday. Monsoon over Hertford on the cards ?
