REPORT

A comfortable win for Hemel II's over a somewhat lacklustre Harpenden III side who did not seem to have the urgency to win the game. Hemel had beaten Harpo earlier in the season at their place so this was doing the 'double'. Put in by Harpo Hemel made steady rather than spectacular progress scoring 200 in their 50 overs. Aaron Wilson (23) and Ed Langley (38) put on 72 for the first wicket in the first 15 overs then it took a late flurry from Charlie Hoskins at no. 9 with 27 to get Hemel up to the 200 mark. Harpo openers started off with 51 for the first wicket but tight Hemel bowling kept them always behind the 4 an over asking rate. That crept up and up with a spell of 8-3-8-2 from Eranda Jayasinghe putting what breaks were needed on their run chase and picking up a couple of wickets to boot. Yer tail end clean out merchant Suren Perera did his normal trick picking up 3 - 29 as he saw out the Harpo tail for Hemel to win by 59 runs.
