REPORT

Last fixture book Sunday game for Hemel with a game at home to Edgware which started last year as a regular end of season wash down. An agreed 40 over match and the Hemel Sunday XI were able to indulge themselves a little. Jack Bailey opened and scored 46, Lewis Hodgins came in at 6 to score 33 and Adam Locke knocked up 20 down at no.10. Pride of place had to go to Guyanan new boy Rawle Merell who smashed 53 from no. 8 with 3X4s and 4X6s. 231 - 10 at the end of their innings. Same principal with the bowling as Jack Boughton opened and took 3 - 44, Nic Benson took 3 - 24 as first change, Adam Locke 1 - 14 until skipper Lewis Hodgins came on to wrap things up with 3 - 3 as Edgware were all out for exactly 100.
