REPORT

Bit of a stuffing on the face of it with Flitwick winning by 5 wickets with 19 Overs to spare. Main man for Flitwick in both the bowling and batting fronts was their Sri Lankan overseas player Rumesh Buddhika. Bowling he took 6 - 31 from his 10 overs and then opening the batting for Flitwick he made 54 from 50 balls. Hemel's innings, batting first, was a case of chop and change. Batsmen 1, 3, 5, 7&8 managed double figures, the in betweens managed 1 run between the lot of them. Hem started off with 57, Brett Penny 21, Jack Bailey 49 in his last game and Tom Elborn (21) and Nick Hodgins (26) put on 51 for the 7th wicket to get Hemel up near to the 200 run mark, which they just made. Buddhika cleared out the tail in his final over taking 4 wickets for 1 run. Flitwick did not hang around on their chase. Captain George Thurstance hit 44 runs from 19 balls and he was out in the 6th over with 60 on the board. The momentum continued Buddhika hit 54 from 50 balls and down the order Dan Nolan hit 52 from 41 balls, including 6 to win the game and get his 50 off Hemel captain Nick Hodgins. The win meant Flitwick jumped up to 3rd in the championship and Hemel slipped down to 4th at the end of the season. Nolan also scored 84* for Flitwick in the earlier fixture as they held out for a draw.
